VIII. Estate Planning Information - Fiduciaries

The selection of your fiduciaries is one of the most important steps in the estate planning process. This section of the questionnaire is intended to introduce you to the various fiduciary roles and responsibilities and encourage you to begin considering who is best suited to serve on your behalf. Your Hill Ward Henderson attorney will discuss the selection of your fiduciaries in detail with you.

Personal Representative – A Personal Representative (often called an “executor”) is the person or company appointed by the court to administer a decedent’s probate estate. Responsibilities of the Personal Representative generally include the collecting of all assets, paying debts of the estate, filing applicable tax returns, and distributing the remainder of the estate according to the terms of a Will. Who would you designate as your Personal Representative in the event of your death? Note - If this person is not a blood relative, he or she must be a resident of the State of Florida.
