Donna serves as a Paralegal with the Real Estate Tax Litigation Group. She has been with Hill Ward Henderson for over ten years, and has been working with the same legal team for the entire time.

Donna assists our legal teams in all phases of discovery, pre-trial and trial for ad valorem tax and eminent domain cases. She also monitors statutory deadlines for initiating litigation, and provides extensive client contact concerning discovery and other administrative matters.

Active in the community, Donna volunteers with Hospice. Outside the office, Donna enjoys reading at the beach, biking, movies, and spending time with her nieces and nephew.
