Mary serves as a Commercial Litigation Paralegal at Hill Ward Henderson. With over eighteen years in the legal field, she has experience in drafting pleadings and discovery, retrieving and reviewing production documents and non-party records, and preparing for and assisting at depositions, hearings and trials.

Mary graduated with an Associate in Science Degree in Paralegal Studies from Hillsborough Community College. She was born in Tampa and currently lives in the historic area of Ybor City.

Outside the office, Mary enjoys traveling to see her favorite bands perform, cooking, canning and preserving food and biking.
