Shane Costello is a problem solver who is dedicated to helping clients achieve their strategic business goals through the litigation process, with a focus on understanding each client's mission and delivering diligent, responsive service and practical advice that balances both legal and economic considerations.

Shane focuses his practice on litigation involving real estate and land use issues, complex commercial matters, and trust and estate disputes. His experience includes both prosecuting and defending lawsuits involving: zoning and land use issues, title and boundary issues, easements, restrictive covenants on real property, takings claims and condemnation actions, state and local permitting issues, breach of contract, non-competition and non-solicitation covenants, tortious interference with contract, fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, deceptive and unfair trade practices, corporate and partnership disputes, commercial landlord/tenant matters, and other business torts and real property issues.

He also practices in trust and estate litigation, and has handled various matters for fiduciaries and beneficiaries, including cases involving breach of trust and trustee removal, undue influence, and tortious interference with expectancy of inheritance.

In his free time, Shane enjoys outdoor activities, running, and spending time with his wife and son.

EXPERIENCE

Real Estate and Land Use

- Lead trial counsel for publicly traded real estate investment trust in defense of a claim to ownership of two acres of submerged land in front of client's waterfront luxury hotel property. After five-day bench trial, court entered judgment in favor of client.
- Trial counsel for owner of 12 acres of historically industrial waterfront property suitable for development of approximately 400 multi-family units, in lawsuit against railroad concerning access to the property over the railroad right-of-way. Railroad refused access for multi-family use. Obtained summary declaratory judgment in favor of client allowing access for multi-family development. Handled argument and briefing for the summary judgment hearing.
- Lead trial counsel in successful defense of title and boundary claims against real estate owner/developer's $1 billion mixed-use development.
- Obtained $54 million deficiency judgment and foreclosure judgment in favor of a private lender in heavily contested foreclosure of large-scale mixed use development.
- Defended developer of a commercial retail development against claims by environmental group challenging land use approvals – after six months of litigation and on the eve of trial, environmental group voluntarily dismissed the case.
- Trial counsel for developer in two lawsuits filed in Sarasota County by objectors to client's proposed 1,100 single-family home development – both lawsuits resulted in judgment for client, allowing development to proceed.
- Represented commercial retail landlord in defense of lawsuit brought by tenant to invalidate radius restriction in lease – tenant agreed to pay $1.15 million for release of the radius restriction.
- Obtained summary judgment on behalf of commercial retail landlord in defense of claims of tortious interference by tenant seeking in excess of $750,000 in damages.

- Represented hotel owner in defense of lawsuit brought by neighboring property owner/developer to invalidate a restrictive covenant benefitting the property of the hotel owner – neighboring property owner agreed to pay $930,000 to client hotel owner in exchange for a modification to the restrictive covenant.

Commercial Litigation

- Defended manufacturing client in complex commercial arbitration involving breach of contract claims seeking approximately $8 million in damages – arbitration panel after two-week arbitration ruled that no breach had occurred.
- Represented plaintiff investor in multi-million dollar software technology partnership dispute – obtained 100% of damages and attorneys' fees.
- Trial counsel in jury trial for defrauded investor in sale of stock in closely held corporation – recovered 100% of damages plus attorneys' fees.
- Represented political-action committee in dispute with municipality over allowing proposed amendment to city charter on the election ballot – amendment was allowed on the ballot.

Trust and Estate Litigation

- Successfully represented personal representative of $100-plus million estate and trustee of various trusts in defending against claims against the estate and trusts in excess of $15 million.
- Obtained dismissal of lawsuit against defendant trustee defending claims of breach of trust, breach of fiduciary duty, undue influence, duress, and tortious interference with expectancy.
