

HWH ATTORNEY JOSH WEBB RECEIVES NATIONAL APPOINTMENT

Firm News

11.15.10

Josh Webb, an associate with the firm, was recently appointed to the national Young Lawyers Steering Committee for the Defense Research Institute (DRI) to serve a minimum two-year term. In this role, he will also serve as a Vice Chair for the group's Activities Subcommittee, and will be responsible for coordinating all networking opportunities and activities for young lawyers who attend numerous DRI conferences and events throughout the year. Josh serves in the Litigation Group at Hill Ward Henderson with a practice emphasis in commercial litigation and real property litigation.