

PEOPLE

Tori C. Simmons

ANTITRUST & TRADE REGULATION

Our Antitrust and Trade Regulation Litigation practice consists of representing both business entities and individuals in civil litigation in a variety of actions under the federal and state antitrust laws, including:

- The Sherman Antitrust Act
- The Truth-in-Lending Act
- Florida's restraint of trade statutes
- Price fixing
- Boycotts
- Consumer class actions
- Trade secret theft

The attorneys in our group combine a thorough understanding of our clients' businesses, the substantive laws, and the processes through which the laws are enforced. We pride ourselves on the aggressive and results-oriented representation of our clients' interests, backed by the human and technological resources to effectively resolve our clients' disputes.