INTERNATIONAL DISPUTES RESOLUTION

Hill Ward Henderson has assisted clients around the world in dispute resolution. Our International Disputes Resolution Group has represented clients from Latin America, Europe, the Far East, the Pacific Rim, Asia, the South Pacific, and Canada.

Our group has defended the interests of our clients in United States Courts and in international arbitration proceedings before the International Centre for Dispute Resolution and the Inter-American Commercial Arbitration Commission. Additionally, we have assisted both our domestic and non-U.S. clients in proceedings brought pursuant to the Hague Convention for International Discovery.
