Lisa joined Hill Ward Henderson as Human Resources Manager in 2007. She graduated with a Master of Business Administration from Eastern University and was inducted into Delta Mu Delta business honorary. She also received her Bachelor of Science with honors from The Sage Colleges and was inducted into Phi Kappa Phi honor society.

Prior to joining the firm, Lisa provided organizations with human resource leadership in a variety of industries including pharmaceutical, health care, insurance and a non-profit organization. Lisa earned her Senior Professional in Human Resources and Global Professional in Human Resources designations through the Human Resource Certification Institute and her SHRM-SCP through the Society of Human Resource Management.

Lisa was the President of HR Tampa where she also served as President-Elect, Treasurer and Director of Hospitality. Lisa has presented at national, state and local conferences and has been a spokesperson on various human resource topics for various television stations and media outlets. Lisa has co-authored two books, The ROI of Compassion and Leading with the Power of Compassion. These books discuss why compassion is the best business practice for employers in dealing with employees' traumatic and non-traumatic situations.

Outside the office, Lisa enjoys travel, hiking, music and spending time with family and friends.
