Ryan Angel's calm and optimistic approach allows him to connect with clients when advising them on complex corporate issues.

Ryan's practice focuses on general corporate advice and mergers and acquisitions. His experience includes advising privately-held companies and their owners with respect to mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, entity formation and various other corporate matters. As part of his practice, Ryan has represented clients in the sale or acquisition of automobile and recreational vehicle dealerships and groups, marine manufacturers, physician and dental practices, engineering firms and other professional service providers.

Ryan is the Co-Founder and member of the Board of Directors of Cure Kids' Cancer Now! Foundation, Inc. a not-for-profit organization that provides support to families fighting pediatric cancer. He also serves on the St. Joseph's Hospital Parent Advisory Council.

Prior to joining the firm, Ryan worked in the Orlando, Florida office of Broad and Cassel, where he focused on mergers and acquisitions, the formation of partnerships, joint ventures and other business entities, and federal tax planning for business transactions.

Outside the office, Ryan enjoys spending time with his wife and daughter. He also enjoys fishing and boating.
