Kelley Roush-Silverman serves as a paralegal in the firm's Medical Malpractice Group. Kelley has extensive experience in analyzing medical records and medical billing records, as well as coordinating with expert and fact witnesses. She also assists this group in all phases of discovery, pre-trial, and trial.

A Chicago native, Kelley has lived in the Tampa Bay area for over 25 years. Prior to joining the firm, Kelley was the lead paralegal and paralegal trainer for The Office of the Attorney General in Children's Legal Services.

Outside the office, Kelley enjoys spending time with her two sons, friends, and her dog "Steeler." She also enjoys the beach, boating, attending sporting events, theater and concerts.
