Matt Maizes is an attentive adviser who produces reliable work and makes every effort to achieve his clients' desired outcomes.

Prior to joining the firm, Matt worked in the Washington D.C. area office of a Big 4 accounting firm where his team served numerous publicly traded clients. On behalf of such clients, he was involved in several deals, both strategic and financial, concerning household name targets.

Outside of the office, Matt enjoys traveling with his wife, cheering on the Florida Gators, and relaxing with his family's cat, Guinness.
