Hill Ward Henderson is pleased to announce attorney Jill Bell was recently selected to join the Leadership Tampa Bay (LTB) Class of 2018. LTB is a non-profit organization that is governed by an independent board of directors who live and work in various parts of the Tampa Bay region. For more than 29 years, LTB has promoted the prosperity and vitality of the Tampa Bay region, enlightening its leaders to the importance of the area as a whole in the state of Florida. Its mission is to engage its members with businesses and community leaders to enhance knowledge of regional assets and issues.

The program begins in September and will conclude in June 2018. LTB's Board of Directors selected the top 50 applicants for its 2018 class. The program is designed not only to identify its regional strengths and build on them, but to delve into issues facing its region and explore ways to bridge its differences.

Ms. Bell is an associate in the firm's Real Estate Group. Her practice primarily focuses on real property purchase and sale transactions, institutional lending, commercial development, and commercial leasing.
