

PEOPLE

Bret Hamlin

BRET HAMLIN APPOINTED INCOMING CHAIR OF THE EMPLOYEE BENEFITS COMMITTEE OF THE ABA TAXATION SECTION

Firm News

7.17.18

Hill Ward Henderson is proud to announce that Bret T. Hamlin has been appointed incoming chair of the Employee Benefits Committee of the American Bar Association (ABA) Taxation Section.

The Employee Benefits Committee of the ABA Taxation Section focuses on developments and issues relating to employee benefits under the Code, ERISA and other laws. The Committee also prepares comments to the IRS, Treasury and other government agencies on proposed guidance and emerging issues.

The mission of the ABA Section of Taxation is to serve its members and the public by providing education about taxes and tax systems, and by providing leadership to support the development of an equitable, efficient and workable tax system.

Mr. Hamlin is a shareholder in the firm's Executive Compensation & Employee Benefits Group. He practices primarily in the areas of employee benefits, deferred compensation and trusts. Prior to entering the private practice of law, he provided plan design and consulting, third-party administration and investment, as well as retirement plan education services for clients.