On the heels of Hill Ward Henderson's 27th anniversary, the firm is pleased to announce the opening of a Clearwater office, expanding its efforts to better serve clients doing business in Pinellas County. Located off of S.R. 60 and just east of U.S. 19, the new office is situated in Park Place, a six-story building within a business park surrounded by trees and foliage. The new office address is 311 Park Boulevard, Suite 240, Clearwater, Florida 33759.

Hill Ward Henderson attorneys, E.D. Armstrong, III and Katherine E. Cole, will be serving clients from the new Clearwater office making this location their "home base." They will also work out of the firm's headquarters in Downtown Tampa's Bank of America Plaza, where the firm recently renewed its commitment by signing a 12-year lease. The new Pinellas County office will be utilized by many Hill Ward Henderson attorneys as they attend to client needs across the Bay.
