Hill Ward Henderson is proud to serve as a presenting sponsor and host for the 2017 Florida Directors' Institute to be held at the University of Tampa on Monday, October 30th. This highly acclaimed, intensive, one-day seminar is designed exclusively for directors of public and large private companies. This year's program will feature panel discussions addressing developments in shareholder activism, best practices for directors, and gaining strategic value from a board of directors. In addition, an audit committee roundtable will be held to provide insights regarding best practices for Audit Committees.

The Institute's faculty is drawn from throughout the U.S. and includes a Vice Chancellor of the Delaware Chancery Court, leading governance experts, directors and executives of companies recognized for excellence, and representatives of institutional investors active in the government area.

David S. Felman, Shareholder and Co-Chair of the Corporate & Tax Group at Hill Ward Henderson is a founder and principal organizer of the Florida Directors' Institute. Mr. Felman represents companies in financings, acquisitions, securities law compliance, and corporate governance. His clients include a broad base of public and private companies, private equity and venture capital firms, and their portfolio companies. Mr. Felman's recent transactions include representing Global Software in its acquisition by Thomson Street Capital Partners and Florida Foods in its acquisition by Kainos Capital. He is one of only seven Florida lawyers to have the highest Tier 1 ranking in mergers and
