John B. Grandoff, III, a Shareholder at Hill Ward Henderson, was recently appointed by Governor Rick Scott to the Tampa Port Authority. The Tampa Port Authority (TPA) maximizes maritime commerce and expands the Tampa Bay and regional economies. The TPA strives to be recognized as a leader in the maritime industry by having a customer driven, strategic business focus in working with stakeholders to develop and manage marine terminals and supporting infrastructure for the benefit of the regional economy.

Mr. Grandoff is the Co-Chair of Hill Ward Henderson's Land Use Group and is part of the firm's Real Estate Group. His practice involves zoning, comprehensive planning, developments of regional impact, vested rights, platting subdivision control and eminent domain. He represents clients before state, regional and local governmental agencies, as well as trial and appellate courts.
