R. Reid Haney, Shareholder with Hill Ward Henderson's Corporate & Tax and Healthcare Groups, was recently elected to the Board of Directors for the Association of Corporate Growth (ACG) Tampa Bay. ACG Tampa Bay, part of ACG Florida, is the premier organization for business leaders, providing high quality networking and information on corporate growth best practices. ACG is a global association dedicated to acquisitions and strategic and organic middle-market business growth.

Mr. Haney's areas of practice include corporate, securities, healthcare and franchising law. He has represented both public and private companies in a wide range of corporate and other business matters. A substantial part of his practice focuses on privately-held businesses, advising them from formation and early-stage development, through growth and capital raising, strategic acquisitions and other transactions and succession planning.
