Firm News

9.18.15

Hill Ward Henderson Shareholder Benjamin H. Hill, IV was recently selected as one of 25 civic leaders to become a honorary commander for the 6th Air Mobility Wing and MacDill Air Force Base. The Honorary Commanders program's mission is to educate and increase the knowledge and understanding of key civic leaders about MacDill Air Force Base and the Air Force. Honorary commanders are paired with an active duty commander in the 6th Air Mobility Wing, where they will learn the inner workings of military work and life.

Mr. Hill is part of the firm's Litigation Group. His practice involves the defense of products liability and complex mass tort claims. For the past several years, Ben has defended a major tobacco corporation in numerous smoking and health cases throughout Florida. His practice also involves the representation and defense of attorneys and their law firms in legal malpractice actions. Mr. Hill is very active in professional and Bar-related activities. He serves as the Immediate Past President of the Hillsborough County Bar Association (HCBA) and has served on its Board of Directors for many years. He is also active in the community where he is an elder and active member of Palma Ceia Presbyterian Church. He is involved in both the Jesuit High School and Vanderbilt University Alumni Associations.
