Kirsten L. Vignec, Shareholder at Hill Ward Henderson, is scheduled to present at the 2012 Association of Legal Administrators (ALA) Region Two Conference & Expo on Friday, September 28 at the Loews Atlanta Hotel. The Region Two Conference & Expo provides business partners with an opportunity to connect with legal administrators and functional specialties from law firms, as well as corporate and government legal departments.

Kirsten's presentation, "401(K) Plan Administration," will enhance attendees' 401(K) Plan knowledge regarding recent changes in the law with respect to fee disclosures, ongoing fiduciary responsibilities and optimizing results under the firm's 401(K) Plan. Kirsten is a Shareholder in the firm's Executive Compensation & Employee Benefits and Corporate & Tax Groups. Her practice primarily involves employee benefit matters, including legal matters associated with the design and administration of executive deferred compensation plans, welfare benefit plans, Section 401(K) plans, profit sharing plans and pension plans.
