10.2.18

Hill Ward Henderson attorney, Kendra M. Lyman, has been named to the Hillsborough County Bar Association (HCBA) Bar Leadership Institute Class of 2018-19, and has been selected as the Articles Coordinator of the class.

The HCBA Bar Leadership Institute aims to identify and develop young attorneys of diverse backgrounds who have the potential to grow into future leaders. The annual program consists of monthly learning modules designed to develop professional and interpersonal skills, facilitate discussions on issues legal professionals face, and increase volunteer service in the community. The program culminates with a community service project that is chosen, managed and completed by the leadership class.

Ms. Lyman is an associate in the firm's Construction & Design and Commercial Litigation Groups. Her practice includes construction claims, design claims, contract documents, insurance and sureties, and project management. She primarily represents owners, developers, contractors, subcontractors, design professionals, and sureties in construction defect disputes, bond claims, lien foreclosure actions, and complex commercial litigation.
