Hill Ward Henderson is proud to announce that shareholder Erik Raines has been selected to participate in Leadership Tampa's Class of 2019.

Founded and managed by the Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce, Leadership Tampa is a leadership group comprised of fifty dynamic and diverse professionals who serve in leadership roles within their organization, and who have demonstrated concern for community issues and volunteered their time with service and professional organizations.

Members of Leadership Tampa participate in educational sessions, tours, and candid conversations with community leaders on a variety of topics over the intensive nine-month program. The program agendas bring in top-level business, civic, and government leaders for an interactive and behind the scenes look at Tampa.

Mr. Raines is a shareholder in the firm's Construction & Design and Litigation Groups. His practice primarily involves representing owners, developers, contractors, design professionals, subcontractors, and sureties in transactional matters and in litigation/arbitration. Mr. Raines is well-versed in handling construction defect disputes, delay claims, bond claims, payment and lien foreclosure actions and complex commercial litigations.
