Hill Ward Henderson is pleased to serve as an exclusive program sponsor for the Florida Venture Forum's 27th Annual Florida Venture Capital Conference, to be held January 30-31 in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

The Florida Venture Capital Conference offers numerous networking opportunities, programming featuring top investors and deal makers active in the state, and showcases Florida's most innovative and fast growing later stage, private companies before an audience of venture capitalists and other investors.

Dave Felman, Shareholder and the practice Co-Chair of the firm's Corporate & Tax Group will be moderating the "Venture Capital State of the Industry" panel at the Florida Venture Capital Conference on January 31.

Founded in 1984, the Florida Venture Forum is a non-profit member organization dedicated to providing educational and networking opportunities for Florida-based entrepreneurs and private companies committed to substantial growth, so that they can successfully achieve their plans and attract and connect with private investment capital sources.
